

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

DISCOVER DECRYPT

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The body of Trustees of Discover DeCrypt CIO is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The body of Trustees of Discover DeCrypt CIO, complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to advance heritage and education for the public benefit and to benefit local residents as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at Discover DeCrypt

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations;
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - o the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - o there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of Discover DeCrypt in order to carry out a service to other members or for purposes connected with the project. We will only share your data with third parties outside of Discover DeCrypt with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data relating to the church in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide "Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website. Other data is kept only as long as necessary and is regularly reviewed.

Specifically, we retain Friends/e-news membership data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and records of events and activities permanently as part of the project archive.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the body of Trustees of Discover DeCrypt CIO holds about you;
- The right to request that the body of Trustees of Discover DeCrypt CIO corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
